

Aquamour Festival 2023

MAY 1ST - MAY 8TH 2023
PLÉNEUF-VAL-ANDRÉ

Aquamour
Love Water, Love Life
Caring is Vital!

"AquaExhibition"

Antonella Avataneo for the "Sea Messengers"

A group of artists presented their work on the theme of "Water in all its forms"

Perrine Angly

Eizo Sakata

Jeanne Guilloux

Antonella Avataneo

Athali

Dominique Voge

Italo Bolano

Diego Racconi

Overview of the exhibition at "Les Régates" gallery

Thank you and congratulations to everyone involved in this collective work!

Congratulations to the CE1/CE2 classes of the André Guigot school group for their artistic production

Gourmet kayak ride

Centre Nautique Pléneuf-Val-André

Ten festival-goers had the chance to kayak and taste gourmet recipes with sea ingredients

Giant paddle activities

Centre Nautique Pléneuf-Val-André

Giant paddle and inflatable sliding experience for the whole family

Well-being and self-care in water

The O'laka association offered a walking in the sea session

Beach & sea cleaning

In partnership with the O'laka association, our festival-goers gave the shoreline back its true nature

The film Aquamour was previewed at the Ehpad du Val-André

Photo contest prize-giving ceremony

Congratulations to the winner:
Maria Giusi Canova

Sound baths

Etienne Avronsart, didgeridoo musician and inventor of the dolphinophone

Projection of the film Aquamour

Projection of the documentary "Aquamour, in search of the world's water messengers" at the Val-André Casino cinema

Expert's point of view

Professor Roger Ben Aim talks about the fascinating molecule of water

Do Montebello quartet concert for water

Do Montebello in Quartet with Marc Berthoumieux at the accordion, Hérvé Morisot at the guitar and Ricardo Fernandes Pinto at the bass

Vivarmor Nature Association

The association's volunteers raise visitors' awareness of the need to save the wildlife of the Îlot du Verdelet

La Pauline

Presentation of the ancient sail boat by Association La Pauline at the Port of Dahouët

Musical entertainment: Béca'Swing

The local group "Béca'Swing" performed French songs, film music, jazz...

"Express your water" art workshop

Watercolor workshop in partnership with the association Pinceaux en Liberté

Meet your inner dolphin

Etienne Avronsart led us through a combination of practices to connect to the water element within ourselves

Eizo Sakata's "Dancing with the Sea"

Artistic happening by Eizo Sakata with Val-André seawater and black ink to the rhythm of Etienne Avronsart's music

Ritual of greetings and thanks to all the fabulous artists, volunteers, partners and festival-goers

Thanks to all!

And a special thanks to the many photographers!

A big thank you to Boris Poulain of the Restaurant l'Atelier, partner of the Aquamour Festival, for supporting all the gastronomic moments of the Festival and feeding all the artists during the Festival, always with great kindness and love

Thanks to the L'Obèle bookshop for decorating its window with the water theme

And thanks to our partners!

